I think that First Ammendment rights protect where I receive my news, sports and weather. In a free society. I can choose to pay for commercial free music etc. or listen to advertiser subsidized radio. The choice is mine not the NAB or some elected officials.

If new technology is meeting the demands of the consumer, and the "old guard" is not, then the invisible hand of the market palce is working and the dinosaurs of the industry will die off.